Dedication

We, the class of 1959, dedicate this volume of the Comary to our school, Newman High.

Newman, we thank you for every help you've given us in the years we've been under your guidance. We thank you for the knowledge you have instilled, the faith you have strengthened, and the joy you have given us.

As we leave your familiar corridors for the last time, may we say never will we forget you. Always will we love you, Newman High School.

Student

Most of the students time is spent in the classroom. The greatest activity of the student is learning and training the mind.

"Mr. Hutten, my ribbon just broke. "

"Now all we need is a boat to pull us. !"

Now what would you do in a position like this, Mary?"

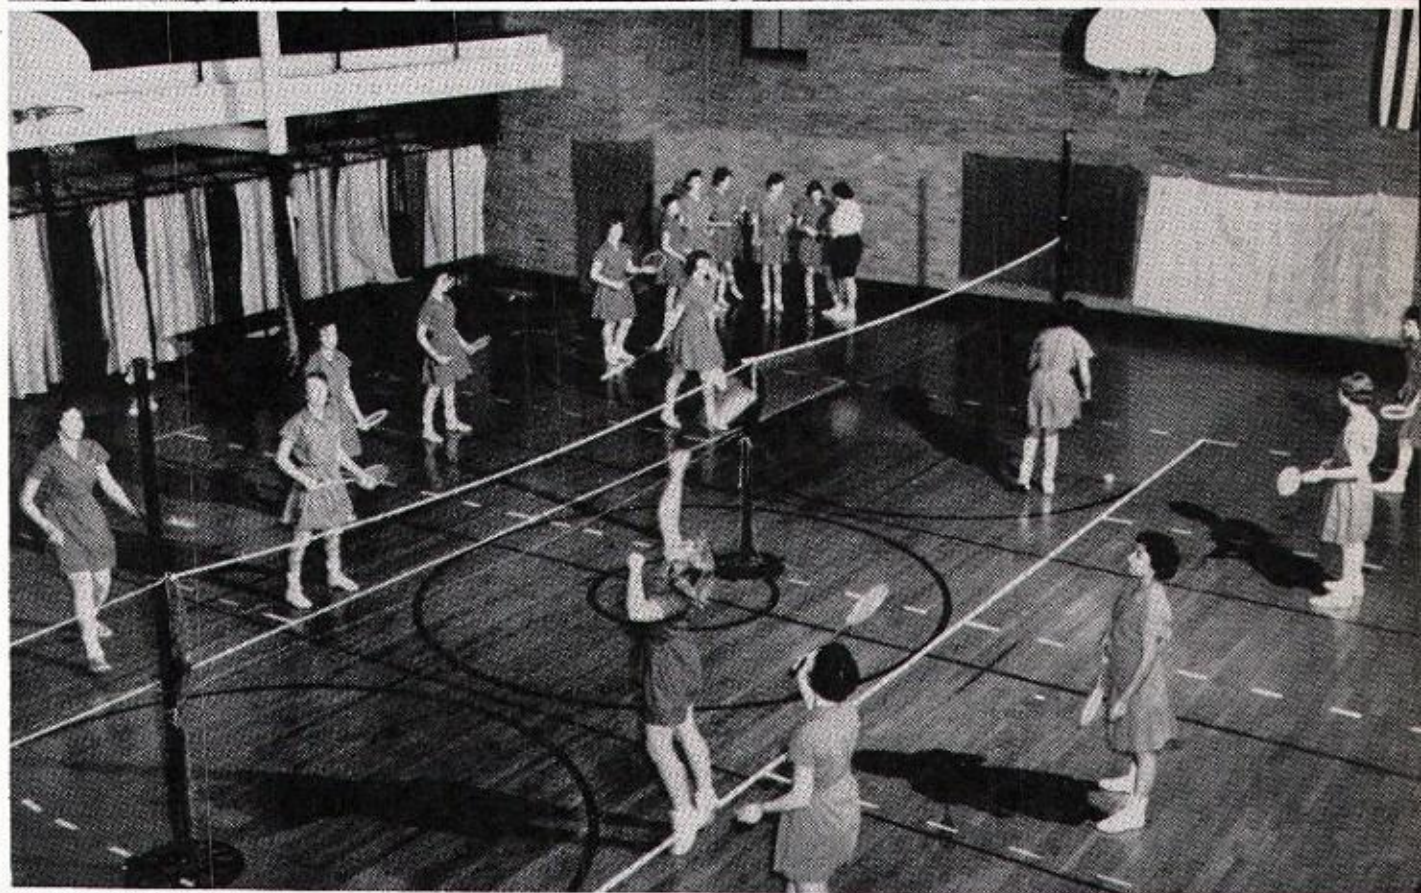

Activities

The subjects offered at Newman are many. They include religion, history, science, physical education, social science, mathematics, languages, economics, and business.

"Where's the Ohio River, Sharon?"

Where'd the Birdie go?"

"What's the matter, didn't you ever see a worm before?"

Student Council

Alex Rios, Mary Austin, Chuck Potts, and Gerri Caldarola were the officers elected to head the student council.

This year the Student Council was revived at Newman. Most of the students presently at Newman did not realize that there had been a Council here before. Although there had been no active Student Council since 1955, it was at one time an important organization in the school.

Sister Ellen Mary, previous principal, started to revive the Council when in 1957 and 1958 she called meetings of all the heads of organizations of the school. Sister Francis Therese again called the heads of the clubs and groups and suggested to them that the Council be revived at Newman. After this group unanimously voted to put it before the student body.

The students voted 186 to 89 in favor of the Student Council. The faculty then voted to approve the Council and on Friday February 16th, Al Rios, Mary Austin, Chuck Potts, and Gerri Caldarola took over as officers of the Newman Student Council.

Before the students were asked to vote for the Council they were told that the purpose of the Council was to promote unity between the students and the faculty. They were told that the group making up the governing power of the Council would have the power to petition the faculty and make request for the entire student body.

Sodality

The Sodality officers Emilie DePasquale, treasurer; Sylvia McMullen, secretary; and Marie Carney, vice-prefect; help Sharon Hill, prefect, with the Sodality bulletin board for the coming month.

Moderator: Sister Patrick Marie

Something new was added to the activities of the Newman girls when this year they took a Sodality sponsored trip to Kentucky. The highlight of the trip was a visit to the Loretto Motherhouse, Loretto Kentucky. Stephen Foster's "My Old Kentucky Home" and Gethsemani, a trappist monastery, were among the other places of interest enjoyed by the girls.

YCS

The Young Christian Students is an organization of high school boys. Its purpose is to promote awareness of Christ's place in a student's life. Father Bonnike is the adviser, and its officers are, Gary Garland, Dave Koehler, Jerry Kobbeman, Bob Vock, and Denny Polzin.

CCD

This group of junior and senior girls under the advisership of Father Larson voluntarily give weekly religious instructions to public school children.

CSMC

The Catholic Student's Mission Crusade is a new student organization at Newman interested in helping the foreign missions. Sister Miguel is the adviser, and Janet Mohr, Jim Meyers, Harry Forehand, and Sherry Cramberg are the major officers.

Here Mrs. Mary Mohr, R.N., helps the officers pack medicine collected for the missions.

The Girls' Athletic Association is under the advisership of Miss Rau. It is an association for all high school girls with the promotion of better sportsmanship as its chief purpose. Although much of the time is spent in sports, the G.A.A. also puts on a carnival, Christmas party, two banquets and initiation. The major officers are: Rosemary Gleason, Secretary; Pat England, Vice-President; Miss Joanne Rau, Adviser; Rose Marie Bressanelli, President; Mary Austin, Treasurer.

The job of the minor officers is to act as chairman of the various sports and activities offered by the G.A.A.

Angie Manzano, Margie McCormick, Sandra Cooney, Kay McDonnell, Ann McGinn, and Nancy Schrader.

Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts Club is organized to promote both craft work and shop skill through movies, speakers, and books. This year the boys sold dolls at Christmas time and operated the concession stand at our basketball games.

This year the Industrial Arts Club of Newman became a member of the Illinois Industrial Education Club. They received their charter April 23, 1959.

OFFICERS: John Bartel, President; Gary Garland, Vice-President; Art Baylis, Secretary; Dave Sproul, Treasurer; and Bob Vock, Publicity.

"I hope the children at Saint Vincent's like these dolls," say Dave Sproul, John Bartel, and Art Baylis.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club are a great help to Sister Mary Clarice in her library work. They devoted a great deal of their free time to library work.

OFFICERS: Marie Carney, President; Janice Bruno, Secretary; and Mary Pat Foley, Treasurer.

Librarians inspect a volume of the new encyclopedia. Judy Saunders, Carol McCaffrey, Barbara Bartel, and Gloria Razo.

Varsity Cheerleaders

All through the season those four perky cheerleaders Mary Austin, Judy Augustine, Janet Mohr, and Kay McDonnell could be found at the Newman games, cheering and smiling, and most of all representing the school in a Catholic manner.

Fresh - - Soph Cheerleaders

Ginger Grennan, Meg McDonnell, Bev Schultz, and Kathy McKee led the cheers for a very successful Fresh-Soph season.

Homecoming

On November 1, 1959, Patricia England was crowned to reign over the Homecoming dance as Queen Pat. Her attendants were Sandra Buckmeier, Ann McGinn, Susie Sullivan, Mary Austin, Mary Hermes, Janet Mohr, and Mary Lou Menz. Team representatives pictured are Tom Regan, Ken Boesen, and Ed Sandoval.

Co-captains Tom Regan and Ken Boesen crown Pat. The crowning was followed by a long remembered dance.

Plot

"Cheaper by the Dozen" is the story of a rather large family of 1920. In fact, Mother and Father Gilbreth were the parents of twelve "Angels".

In the play Anne, the oldest girl, suddenly becomes interested in the opposite sex. Her father, the defender of efficiency, has little use for spending time drinking sodas, riding in cars, movies, or dancing, and the chaos that follows proves to delight audiences of all ages.

Prom

One of the biggest nights of the year in the lives of juniors and seniors is the night that they go forth into the spotlights and enter into the world known as prom night.

This year the seniors were guests at "Stairway to the Stars." The juniors transposed the Newman gym to a paradise on earth.

The promnaders danced till midnight to the music of Marvin Greene.

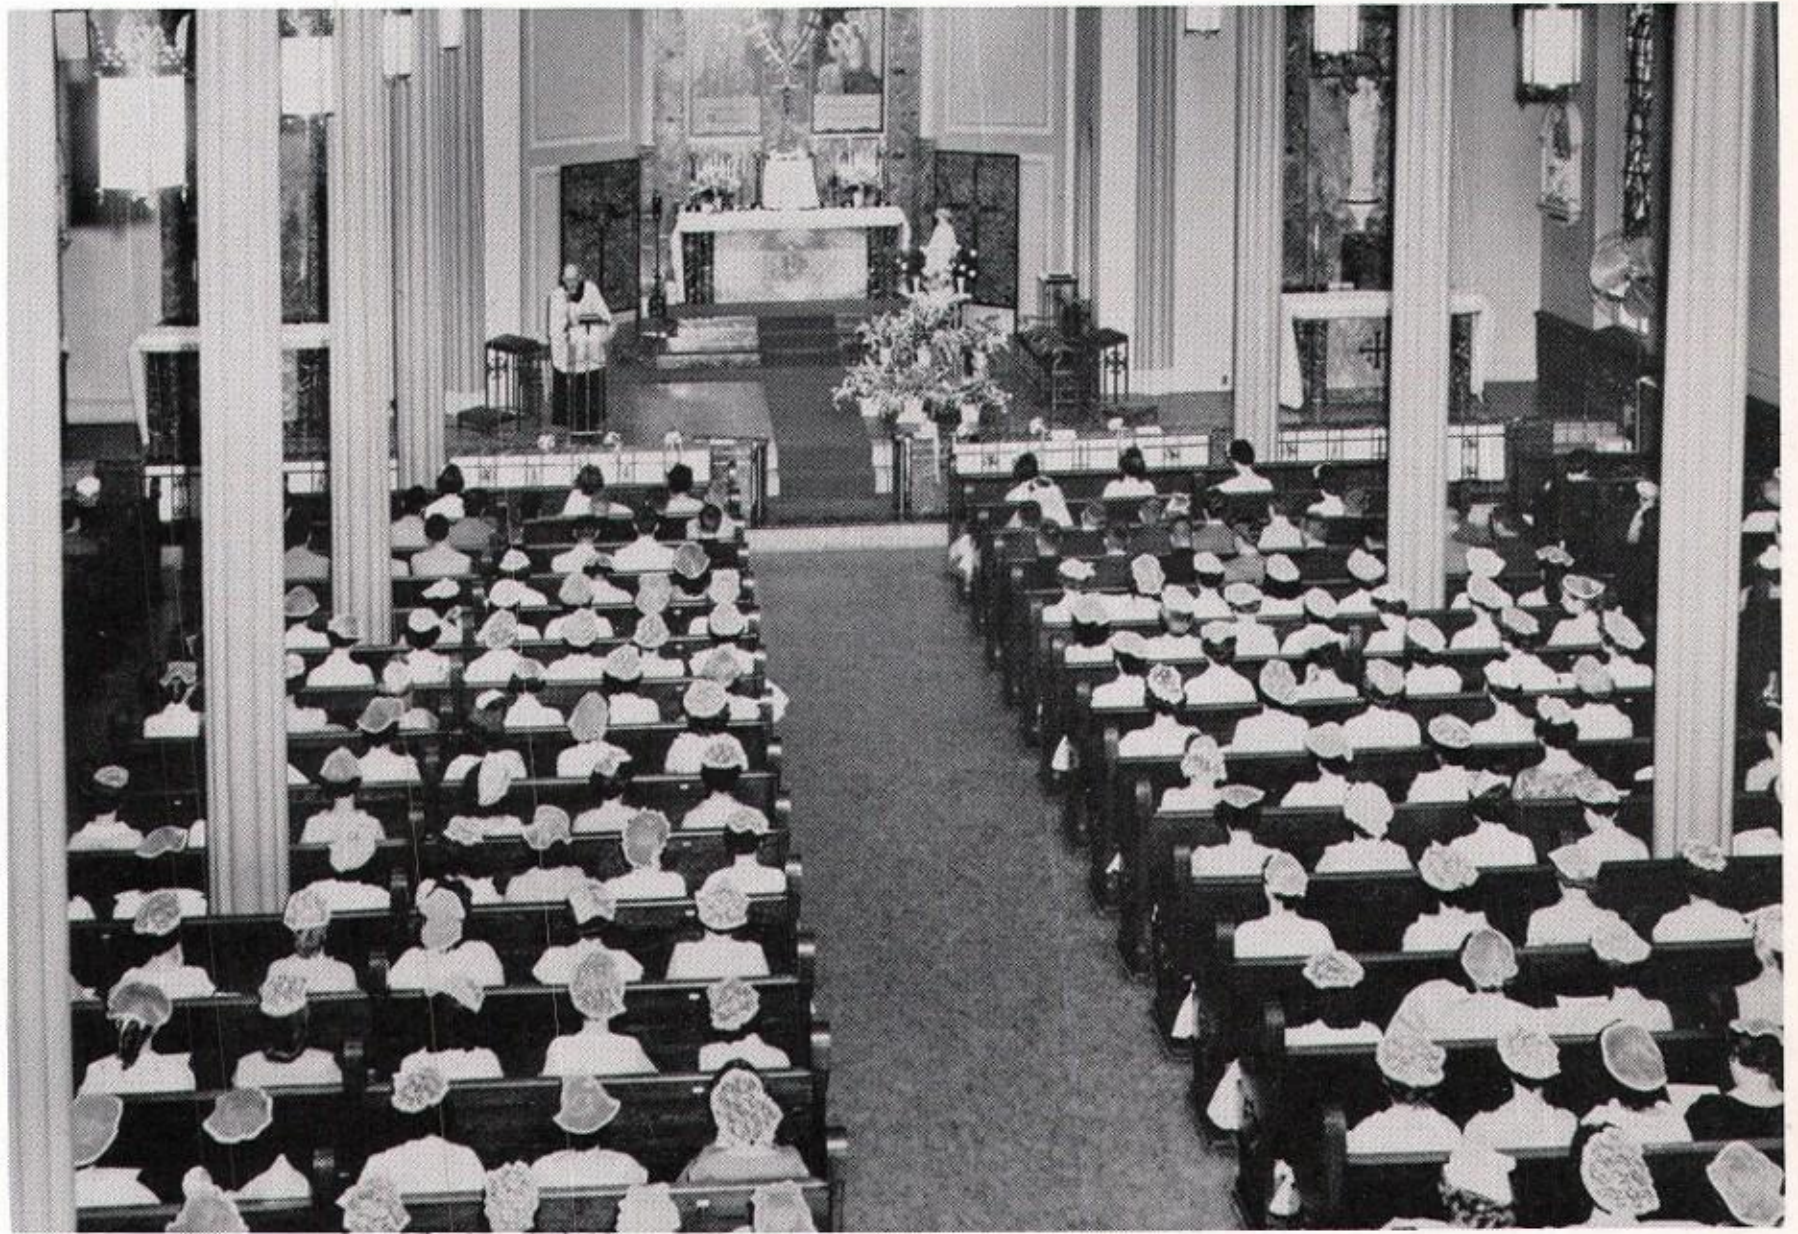

Only in their Dancing attire could these Newmanites look so dreamy and grown up.

May Crowning

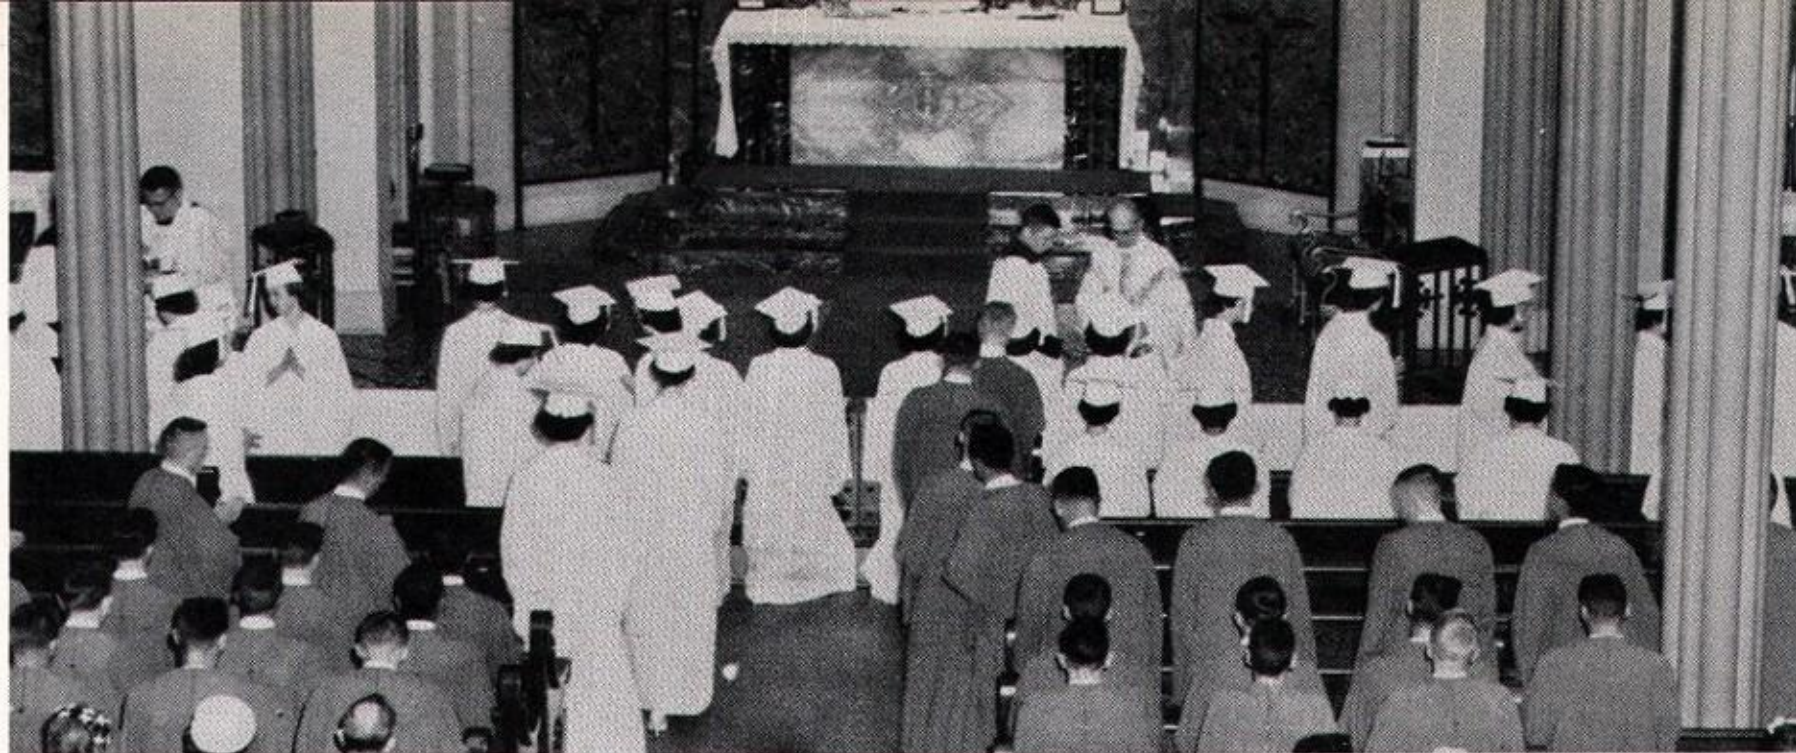

Sharon Hill, attended by her court, Norene O'Neil, Mary Pat Lease, Marie Carney, Sylvia McMullen, Emilie De Pasquale, Dorothy Razo, and Sandra Bellini, crowns the Blessed Mother.

Father Green speaks to the Sodality following the crowning of Our Lady.

Sister Patrick Marie Sodality Moderator congratulates the girls on a lovely May Crowning.

Baccalaureate

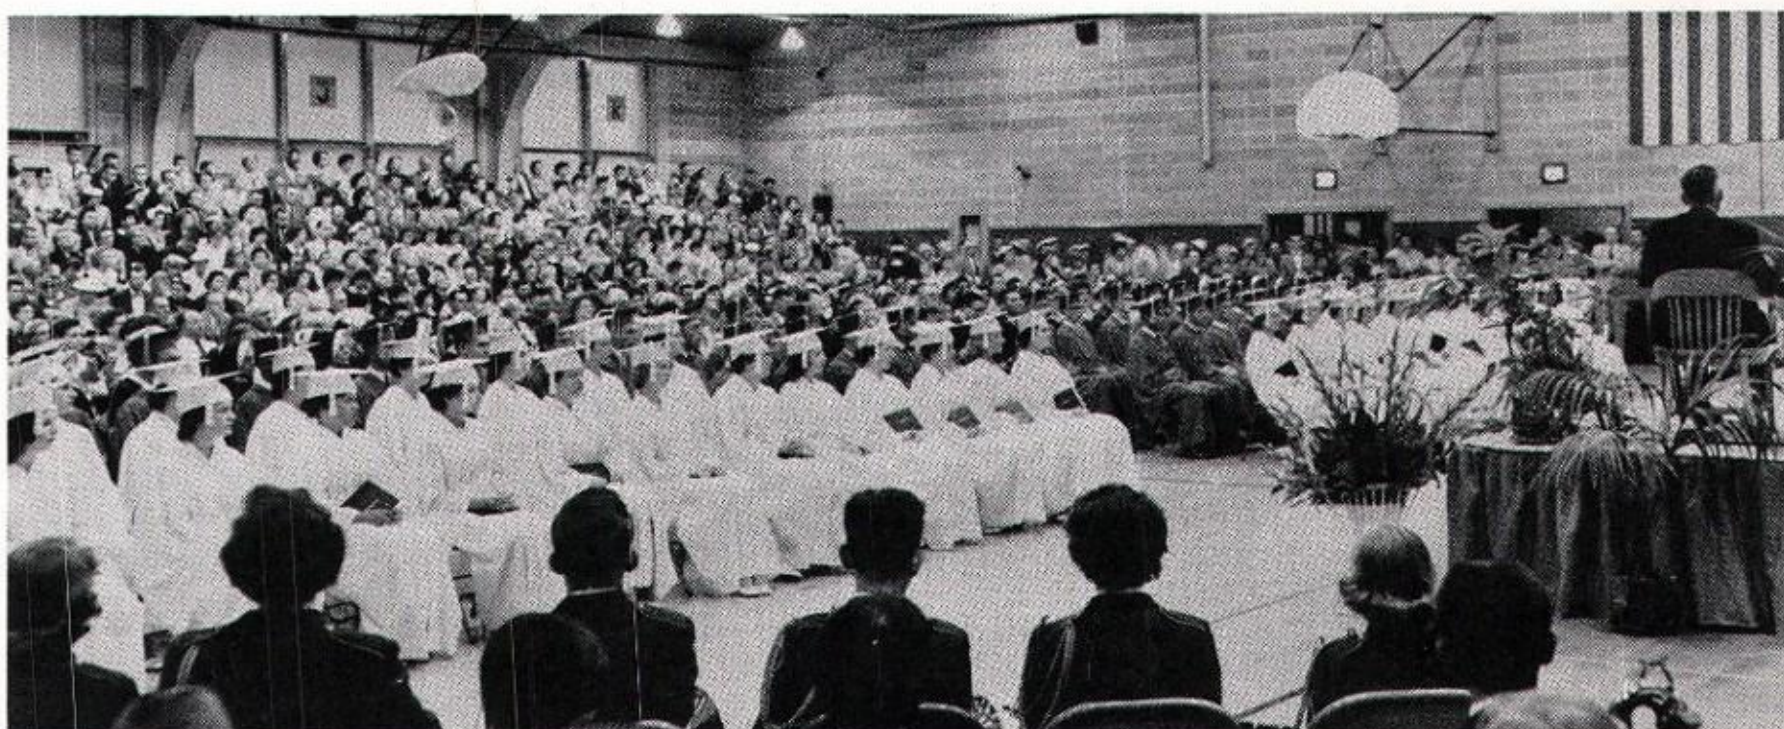

Bishop Loras T. Lane presented the senior class of 1959 with their diplomas June 1.

Alumni filled the auditorium to see the class graduate, for this was the last graduating class of Newman High School.

The graduates proudly left the commencement ceremony with determination to uphold the ideals that have been taught at Newman High School since it was founded in 1915.

N Club Officers

Bill Boesen, Gene Grennan, Frank Cesarek, Ken Boesen, Jerry Kobbeman and Mr. Ed Scheck.

The Newman Letter Club, up to this year, had simply been an organization in name. Now, due to the hard work of Coach Scheck and the officers of this year's N Club, the organization is starting to go places.

As a club for the athletes of Newman High School, it has done a splendid job of furthering the cause of good sportsmanship here at Newman this year. Congratulations to Coach Scheck and the boys of the N Club. May we continue to be able to say "well done" in the years to come.
